

CX – 34

Resume

Daniel R. Kenney

(b) (6)

dkenney@fs.fed.us

Work Experience:

2011-Present Zone Fisheries Biologist (GS-11), Nez Perce-Clearwater National Forests, Orofino, ID

2000-2010 Zone Fisheries Biologist (GS-11), Sawtooth National Forest, Ketchum, ID

1997-2000 Fisheries Biologist (Equivalent to GS-12), National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS), Roseburg, OR

1992-1997 Fisheries Biologist (GS-11 and -12), U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Walla Walla, WA

1990-1992 Fisheries Biologist (GS-9), Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC

1982-1990 Term and seasonal biological technician/aide with state/Federal agencies, universities, and the Potlatch Corporation.

Skills: Experienced with ESA Section 7 consultation on anadromous salmonids and bull trout, experienced with NEPA fisheries and aquatics analysis (including projects in timber and fuels management, range, recreation, special uses, minerals, engineering, watershed management, and wildlife/fisheries), have planned and budgeted fisheries habitat improvement projects; have conducted and have also directed and supervised seasonal employees in conduct of many forms of fish and aquatic habitat sampling, competence in written and verbal communication, basic knowledge of ArcGIS

Education: B.S., Fisheries Management, The Ohio State University, 1983
M.S., Fisheries Management, Frostburg State University, 1994

Additional Training: ESA Section 7 and Counterpart Regulations, FS Road Analysis, ArcGIS, R1/R4 Habitat Inventory, NEPA, Program Management, NRIS Water, Stream Restoration Design and Streambank Bioengineering, Piscicide Application, Basic Fire Behavior and Safety and Resource Advisor

Accomplishments: American Fisheries Society Certified Fisheries Scientist, Co-organizer of the 2007 and 2016 Salvelinus confluentus Curiosity Society meetings, 4 U.S. Forest Service Certificates of Merit, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Achievement Medal for Civilian Service, BAER Team participation; NMFS Southwest Oregon Level 1 Team representative